

Pledge Global Peace

Countries with a problem solving strong powerful army also have wise diplomats who work adeptly for the promotion of peace everywhere, who work to safeguard human rights, who work to safeguard nature and life. In ongoing global conflicts soon there will be sustainable transformation, global leaders and government organisations, office of The Prime Minister, President & Chancellor working for strategic decisions for promoting peace and creating a roadmap where all the countries can survive & thrive. Global business sanctions, restrictions are very important and essential but global peace and sustainable growth are also very essential. Germany, China and the United States of America are potential global leaders and super powers who are also having visionary wise leaders and diplomats who are working rigorously for promoting global peace talks and ceasefire also reducing the components of war machinery worldwide. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy & Russian President Vladimir Putin along with other global leaders and surrounding countries knows that Nuclear war may have devastating consequences and it will not be good, there is immediate need for Nuclear Disarmament. Office of Secretary General United Nations António Guterres & Ursula Von Der Leyen President of European Commission taking significant steps for global peace and end of war. Immediate discussion between the government representative from the office of President of Ukraine and Russia is essential to safeguard countries surrounding them. Russian President Vladimir Putin & Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy always expressed their willingness and openness to engage in immediate peace negotiations but due to some strategic hurdles, and government officials from both countries it got delayed. A greater number of the global leaders and representatives of the office of President, Chancellor and Prime Minister from different countries are supporting covenant for armistice with declaration that Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy & Russian President Vladimir Putin must take immediate steps for peace talks. Representative from the office of Russian President Vladimir Putin confirmed that - The Ukrainian President and citizens of Ukraine will get more than what Ukraine wants for their citizens but it will be done in phases peacefully – Russian Government will play an active role in the redevelopment of Ukraine and bringing back peace for all. Russian President Vladimir Putin will take further steps essential and needed to make sure there will be sustainable growth in Ukraine and citizens of Ukraine will witness peace. Leaders from the Ministry of Defence Russia and Ministry of Defence Ukraine share some common views when it comes to the welfare of their communities, citizens and vision for their country. Some of the leaders from NATO also share similar views for peace talks. From military moves to essential moves for peace between Russia and Ukraine government organisations in middle east and southeast asia are also taking significant steps. Indian business leader Ghanshyam Das Birla once mentioned in his letter to Basant Kumar Birla – Leaders must use their power & resources for public welfare, service of mankind. Important Role of Government of United States of America in Global Peace - George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, John F Kennedy – all of them made significant global impact by adopting a governance framework for peace. Finally Russia and Ukraine will now witness peace and end of war.

The detailed original version of this white paper is created by the joint efforts of the leaders and policy think tanks in India, China, France, UAE, USA, Japan, Germany, Australia and also the government representatives of the office of Prime Minister, President in different countries who support peace, prosperity and peaceful life on earth.