

UPSC

Glorious institution known for all visionary leaders who are working continuously & making more developed India. IAS Shri Nripendra Mishra is senior officer who worked for enhancing the country, well known for his historical work in development of projects with national significance. During all interactions with his office during his active work in different ministries, public institutions, PMO he remain extremely lawful and worked for enhancing the life of common citizens. UPSC is well known for identifying good individuals who can serve the country & make positive impact at different levels of government administration and entire economy. Several District Magistrates across India are well known for taking decisions with support of political masters which are of great significance & known for creating significant positive impact for enhancing the life of citizens in urban, rural areas. From creating cooperative societies to self help groups to different other form of organisations which are now accelerating economic development. This whitepaper cover details of some of the government officers IAS IPS who made significant positive impact in the life of commons citizens who are also benchmark when it comes to learning good ethics for new UPSC officers. IAS Shri Sameer Sharma Former Chief Secretary Andhra Pradesh – During all our interactions with him he remain helpful & never misused his constitutional powers even during extremely challenging times, during our ongoing work in his office, he was having serious health issue for which he underwent surgery for which we do not had any immediate information, he came back and then continued working on his ongoing assignments and made significant positive social impact. Several other Principal Secretary to Chief Minister of different states with whom we had an opportunity to work on government, industry assignments & they never misused their constitutional powers, government authority, government network to cause harm & always remain lawful even during exceptional challenging work. IAS Sanjay Malhotra Governor RBI, Former Secretary Ministry of Finance is public leader with exceptional understanding of social welfare, while working on some ADR assignment we have seen his great leadership quality, & ability to guide, help weakest companies, individuals without causing harm to them. Principal Secretary to Prime Minister, Shri Pramod Kumar Mishra PMO is also great example being social leader who never misused his powers & position, he is well known for pushing most challenging projects for the enhancement of all the state government organisations, common citizens at grassroot level which can make positive social impact. While working mistakes do happen but these are some of the excellent government officers who tried to make sure country moves in the direction of growth & development, pushing new citizen centric reforms good for social welfare. IPS Shri Ajit Doval, IPS Dr.Alok Mohan, IPS Shri Gyanendra Pratap Singh, IPS Shri Sanjay Arora, IPS Dr.Shaik Darvesh Saheb, IPS Shri Prashant Kumar, IPS Sri CH Srikanth, IPS Ms.Sanjukta Parashar, IPS Ms.Kiran Bedi, IPS Ms.Subhashini Sankaran, police officers who are well known for lawful decisions, systematic, disciplined citizen centric work, who never misused their powers, position, authority, government network, who always worked for social welfare, reforms which are good for citizens, which can push citizens to be good law abiding citizens, to reduce protest, maintain law & order. UPSC now needs to gear up to identify more officers, civil servants who understand the meaning of social good, public welfare, social justice, dignity, essential duties, political masters and work for citizen centric approach to reduce crime rate possibly with strict rules & regulations, help citizens to become good law abiding citizens & contribute in national & international growth work.

The detailed version of this white paper is available for industry organisations, government departments & ministries. It is created by the joint efforts of chamber of commerce, industry organisation, editors from national news media companies, dean of different universities.